Human Development Indicators by Agroclimatic Zones

AGROCLIMATIC ZONES:
These zones show a clear north-south trend of decreasing aridity (higher rainfed agroclimatic potential). Of the HDI indicators, three show a certain degree of correlation with aridity (Child Mortality, Adult Literacy and School Enrolment). One could suggest that the lower the agroclimatic potential, the poorer are the people. No trend is visible with 'stunted children'.

GRID Arendal