On both sides: Indigenous communities along the Peru-Brazil border

Indigenous peoples

- Territorial reservation for voluntarily isolated communities (Peru)
- Indigenous land (Brazil)
- Community in territories not reserved
- Contiguous area with documented presence of isolated indigenous groups
- Control post for indigenous territories protection

Threats to the forest and the communities

- Logging concession
- Oil extraction concession
- Illegal logging area
- Road

Natural protected areas

- National parks and strictly protected area, exploitation of natural resources is prohibited
- Protected area, utilization of natural resources is permitted
- Amazon forest area

Sources: Amazonian Network of Georeferenced Socio-Environmental Information (RAISG).