Sea level rise in Anzali Lagoon, Iran

Area that will be submerged by 2017 with a sea level rise of 1.2 metres

Lagoon extention (as of 2002)

Urban areas and buildings

Area cultivated with rice

Fish ponds

The scenario pedicts a sea level rise of 1.2 metres assuming a constant rise over a period of 10 years.

Sources: Caspian Environment Programme, Transboundary Diagnostic Analysis Revisit, 2007.