Peatland Ecosytem Services

Provisioning
Products obtained from ecosystems

Regulating
Benefits obtained from the regulation of ecosystem processes

Cultural
Non-material benefits obtained from ecosystems

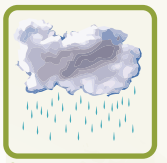

Supporting
Services necessary for the production of all other ecosystem services

Recreational and aesthetic

Spiritual and inspirational

Climate regulation

Erosion protection

Educational

Water regulation

Biodiversity

Nutrient cycle

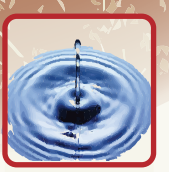

Food

Soil formation

Fibre and fuel

Fresh water

Water purification and waste treatment

López, 2017

Sources: Kimmel K. and Mander U., 2010, Ecosystem services of peatlands: Implications for restoration, Progress in Physical Geography, 34(4); Parish, F. et al (Eds.), 2008, Assessment on Peatlands, Biodiversity and Climate Change: Main Report, Global Environment Centre, Kuala Lumpur and Wetlands International, Wageningen; Government of the United States (n.d.), Mid-Atlantic Regional Ocean Assessment, Ecosystem Services (roa.midatlanticocean.org, accessed on October 2017).

GRID-Arendal